ABSTRACT

Galeri Prima proudly presents its latest exhibition, OEUUVRE, /'ə:vɪ(ə)/, which literally means the body of work of an artist or a work of art, music or literature.

Oeuvre is an open themed exhibition where artists are not restricted to produce work based on any specific topic. Artwork are selected based on the artists' skill and body of work.

Forty-seven young and emerging artists will display various works with different art styles and medium – drawing, painting, sculpture, and printmaking – at Galeri Prima from 10 – 21 February 2020.

As a gallery that actively promotes and provides a platform for artists to showcase their talent - young or budding - Galeri Prima believes this exhibition will open doors for these young and emerging artists to achieve their full potential.

ABOUT GALERI PRIMA

The NSTP marked its foray in the promotion of arts in Malaysia with the establishment of the NSTP Art Gallery located at the lobby area of Balai Berita Bangsar in 1994. It provided budding artists a much-needed platform for them to exhibit their works. In 2016, NSTP took the bold decision to provide the gallery its own home at a newly transformed section of its Headquarters and renamed it Galeri Prima. Under the wings of New Straits Times (NST), the Galeri also raised the level of its artistic journey by not only hosting art exhibitions but also art trading and auction activities. It is also an education hub on art appreciation via engagement with school children, youths and adults (curatorial walkthrough) and art workshops. Galeri Prima is a setup under the NST brand to support local arts in Malaysia.
