Celebrating 175

Galeri Prima has been organising a series of exhibitions themed Traversing 175 to celebrate the significant milestone of 175 years of the New Straits Times this year.

Over 400 rare and nostalgic images dating back to 1845 and curated from KLIK's huge archive were on display in the first two series in July and August.

The Traversing 175 exhibition was launched by the Prime Minister of Malaysia YAB Tan Sri Muhyiddin Yassin on Aug 7, 2020.

This third and final instalment of the Traversing 175 series sees 175 artworks and photographs by 175 Malaysian talents comprising artists, illustrators and photographers. Their works are indeed rich in creative imagery. The works displayed in this exhibition can be divided into a few categories and styles.

The first group comprises Ahmad Shukri Mohamad, Umibaizurah Mahir Ismail, Mohd Al-Khuzairie Ali, Nur Thahirah Razak, Noriza Arzain, Natasha Azim, Amar Shahid, Kusfaizlul Hakim, Hug Yin Wan, Fitriah Roslan, Norazlan Ahmad, Firdaus Kamaruddin, Faiq Faiz, Aleff Ahmad and Liu Cheng Hua.

Their works date back to the pre-Merdeka era, using KLIK's archive as reference and resources of their work.

Ahmad Shukri Mohamed uses a pre-Merdeka picture in his work called Amanat. He believes the country's independence has a big impact on Malaysians. The loud and clear Merdeka chant symbolises a mandate to all Malaysians to keep the country safe and sound now and in the future.

Umibaizurah Mahir Ismail features a scene of young women in their baju kurung in the 1980s. Her collage shows off fine and detailed ceramic accessories.

Fitriah Roslan has a unique approach in depicting and interpreting Malaysian scenes by using the Malayan Tiger as a subject matter. The use of bright colours and impasto highlight the subject matter, contrary to the illustrations and assemblage piece by Verly Veto Vermol and Aimman Hafizal. On the sculpture pieces, there are a variety of styles and messages that can be seen.

Rosli Zakaria describes the moral of extending help to people in his wood and steel sculpture. Rizal Salleh talks about life, the will to live and the process of survival in his ceramic work.

Faiz Putra illustrates a cute yet sarcastic scene of Malaysian behaviour in his piece titled 'Membawang'. Gossiping has unfortunately become a part of Malaysian behaviour.

Meanwhile, Hasnol Sharudin focuses on the issue of unethical campers leaving campsites unkempt and dirty.

In the photography section, all 40 photographers capture unique photos that have a voice and a message of their own. These moments are truly impossible to reproduce.

As American photographer Sally Mann rightly puts it, "Photographs open doors into the past, but they also allow a look into the future."

Fathil Kidir @ Asri successfully portrays the struggles and sorrow of a poor young boy who has lost his hand.

Through the lens of camera, Khairul Ghazali shows an abandoned cell at Pudu Jail while Sairien Nafis' experimental work has images of people walking on the street and signages using multiple exposure and layering techniques.

Indeed, all 175 artists traverse moments of Malaysia and her history through their work, using the various forms of art, style and medium.

Traversing 175 art and photo exhibition is on at Galeri Prima from Oct 2 until Oct 16, 2020.
