Lim Soon Hock - Magical Iron, Mixed media on canvas, 90cm x 90cm, 2022 (details)

“Memory is the diary that we all carry about with us.”

– Oscar Wilde

MEMORIA

Memories, especially childhood memories, are very important in everyone's life. For many, it's probably the best time of their lives. Rather, they shape our thinking and, to some extent, our future. They don't necessarily define us, but they certainly play a big role.

Childhood memories also keep the inner child alive. No matter how old we are, each of us will always have a child in us. It reminds us of times associated with things we are passionate about.

Through Memoria, Galeri Prima aims to jolt the memory of the yesteryears, one easily forgotten as the country progresses further.

A total of 50 Malaysian artists - young, emerging and seniors - share a narrative of their childhood memories and that of the country. The images are of mixed emotions - some sad, others of happiness of days gone by.

The old sewing machine, for example, reminded Liu Cheng Hua of his father who was a tailor while the old charcoal iron evoked Lim Soon Hock's memory of his mother ironing his clothes every morning.

As villages turned into towns and eventually became cities with high-rise buildings, painters like Mursyidah Zainal, Rizal Salleh, Shima Abu Hazim and Ismail Baba document the fast disappearing kampung scenery on the canvases. Most of these works are the artists' personal memories, experiences and statements.

Memoria runs from 15 February to 3 March.
Enjoy the show!

Remembrance of things past – Sonnet 30

When to the sessions of sweet silent thought
I summon up remembrance of things past,
I sigh the lack of many a thing I sought,
And with old woes new wail my dear time's waste.
Then can I drown an eye, unus'd to flow,
For precious friends hid in death's dateless night,
And weep afresh love's long since cancell'd woe,
And moan th' expense of many a vanish'd sight.
Then can I grieve at grievances foregone,
And heavily from woe to woe tell o'er
The sad account of fore-bemoaned moan,
Which I new pay as if not paid before.
But if the while I think on thee, dear friend,
All losses are restor'd, and sorrows end.
