Allah SWT is beautiful and loves beauty. This can be seen in His every creation, something that we humans cannot challenge and match.

However, Allah SWT endowed humans with various talents to produce creative works either in physical form or visually. A creative individual would use this “gift” to produce something beautiful to look at.

Islam through its main source, the Al-Quran, values art. The Quran guides humans to know Allah SWT and invites them to see that the entire universe is created in harmony and beauty. This is the proof of God’s greatness that we should feel and enjoy.

And Islamic art is the art of depicting forms with beautiful language and in accordance with human nature.

Visual beauty is something that is subjective and different according to each individual because everyone has different tastes and interests. While humans usually appreciate something of beauty on the outside, true beauty is not only something that is beautiful in appearance but beautiful in meaning and purpose.
